

CONFESSIONS OF A PROFESSIONAL DANCER

MOTUS O DANCE THEATRE

It is strange to think how a gymnast, a sheep shearer and a figure skater could have their paths meet and eventually become Co-Artistic Directors of a dance theatre company in Canada. Yet, as it turns out, that diversity has become the essence of MOTUS O. Where backgrounds and talents collide and then reform, creating a dynamic team that explores the dramatic and relishes the physical - and all with a touch of humour.

Created by Co-Artistic Directors James Croker, Cynthia Croker and Jack Langenhuizen and directed by Petra Blenkhorne, CONFESSIONS OF A PROFESSIONAL DANCER reveals the deep recesses of life behind the curtain of professional dance careers that have spanned over 30 years. With the nudging of a therapist, witness the absurd, the bizarre, the droll and the prolific stories of 3 journeyers who thought starting a dance theatre company was actually a good idea! Join MOTUS O as they embark on this, their last tour as founders of the company. The Final Frontier.
